

Hi Coach Allocco,

Thank you! I am always impressed by the way you and all of your coaches communicate to the kids. You make your message very understandable and inspirational. My husband Chris shoots around in the backyard with Spencer and always tries to give him tips but also tries to make it fun (he has him shoot 25 free throws everyday.... well, as many days as they can). Chris tells me that your son-in-law is a client of his.... very small world!
